

VOICES AGAINST POVERTY: Nov. 4th, 6pm

Mix the meaningful liturgy of Holy Communion with the biblically rich lyrics and spirited rhythms of the Irish rock band U2. Preach the message of caring for our neighbors, particularly the most vulnerable. Invite people of all ages and walks of life to be part of the poverty-ending solution, locally and globally.

You'll find ALL of this at VOICES AGAINST POVERTY at Page Hall, SUNY Albany Downtown Campus, on Sunday, November 4 at 6pm.

Area church, campus, and community action groups have joined together to create this unique U2Charist worship celebration for the Capital District. Based on the experiences of congregations around the world that have used this innovative format, it's expected you'll find music that grabs your heart, you'll experience liturgy that grabs your soul, and you'll learn about places of service that grab the meaning of your life.

You'll find out about the Millennium Development Goals, the United Nations roadmap to end extreme poverty ... and about ONE (www.ONE.org), a growing campaign of 2.4 million people and over 100 of America's most well-respected advocacy and humanitarian organizations, working together to make poverty history.

An Information Fair will also provide you with the opportunity to learn what's being done locally to eliminate poverty and hunger. Community action groups, such as Girls Inc. and CWS/CROP Hunger Walk, will be on hand to share information about their work to make our world a better place.

VOICES AGAINST POVERTY is free and open to all. This is definitely an experience to share with friends ... invite them!

Page Hall is located at 135 Western Ave; parking is available across the street at the Thurlow Terrace Parking Lot. The Information Fair starts at 6pm; Worship Service begins at 7pm.
